

Christmas is Canceled Series

With all the glitz and glitter of the Christmas season also come the headaches and hassles. Trying to find just the right gift for everyone, fitting in all the programs and parties, a visit to the in-laws, Christmas morning mayhem, slapping on your Christmas cheer because after all, "Tis the season!"...and when it's all said and done, you're left with, "How do I pay for all of this?" Maybe this season you don't feel much like celebrating. Maybe the thought has crossed your mind once or twice, "What if we just canceled Christmas this year?" But maybe this holiday is just what your spirit needs to be refreshed. Maybe it's more about how you do Christmas this year versus if you do it. Join us for this three week series designed to cause us to pause and reflect how we celebrate this year.
